Professor K N Yung has been elected Fellow of The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (FIEEE) for 2012 in recognition of his outstanding contributions to engineering education and research in applied electromagnetics. EE now boasts 14 FIEEE.

Miss Kate M K SZETO
Clerical Officer II
Arriving on 14 December 2011

Dr. Leanne L. H. Chan received her Ph.D. degree in Biomedical Engineering in 2009 at University of Southern California (USC), where she also received her M.S. degrees in Biomedical Engineering, and Electrical Engineering. She joined the Department of Electronic Engineering at City University of Hong Kong in December 2011. Her research interests include electrical stimulation of nerve, retinal prosthesis, electrophysiology, and biomimetic implantable sensor and device.

Prof Stella W PANG
Chair Professor
Arriving on 22 December 2011

Prof STELLA W. PANG was a Professor of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at the University of Michigan from 1990 to 2011. She served as the Associate Dean for Graduate Education and International Programs in the College of Engineering from 2002 to 2007. From 1981 to 1989, she was with Lincoln Laboratory, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Prof. Pang's research interests include nanofabrication technology for microelectromechanical, biomedical, microelectronic, and optical devices. She has 9 patents granted in nanotechnology and microsystems. She is a Fellow of Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, American Vacuum Society, and Electrochemical Society.
