

Company Honeywell Limited
Website <https://www.honeywell.com/us/en>
Position Field Service Engineer

Job Highlights

- Join a Fortune 100 company to develop your career
- 5 days work with double pay, overtime and other allowances
- Good opportunity to learn new technology

Primary Responsibilities

- Lead system testing and commissioning works
- Lead technicians and subcontractors for project and maintenance works
- Monitor site works / progress / completion schedule
- Negotiate with suppliers and subcontractors on equipment prices / modification works quotation and co-ordinate with sourcing department for orders placement
- Schedule and plan resources at site level, such as, manpower, materials delivery and tools
- Perform system design and execute engineering works, including software engineering
- Perform emergency call duties outside normal working hours as per agreed rosters
- Deliver technical trainings to external customers
- Have financial control on jobs according to previously agreed budgets and plans
- Ensure customer satisfaction through direct liaison with client representatives, customers and service recipients

Job Requirements

- Good knowledge on systems/products, such as, Building Control, Extra Low Voltage System or similar in the industry
- Good negotiation and co-ordination skills with customers and sub-contractors
- Experience in computer systems, such as, Microsoft Office Professional, Software Programming, Computer System Networking, etc
- Strong Commitment to customer satisfaction
- A good team player
- Good communication - both verbal and written
- Self-motivated and the ability to work independently without supervision
- The ability to work under pressure
- Good safety awareness
- Willing to travel to Macau

Please feel free to email to recruit@honeywell.com for more details!