

Job Description

- This is an internal human resources document owned by Kinetix Group and is restricted for the use of designated persons only -

IT Trainee

If YOU are passionate about deal making and interacting with people, and have pleasant personality and can-do attitude, join us in a rewarding career in information technology at Kinetix now!

Job Description

- Program development and system testing
- System maintenance & support services to various clients
- Conduct project administration duties if necessary
- On-job training will be provided

Requirements

- Degree holder in Computer Science or IT related disciplines
- Committed and open-minded, willing to learn and work on different aspects of project tasks
- Self-motivated, good team-player and able to work independently
- Good command of written English and spoken Cantonese
- Knowledge of software development, programming skill or system testing will be a plus
- Part-time or placement experience will be a plus