

From: EE General Office
To: EE Final Year Students
Date: 6 May 2021

Job Opportunity: Engineering Trainees at HKTV Mall

HKTV Mall is now looking for candidates to join them as Engineering Trainees. Please see below for the job details.

Company

At HKTV, we believe in technology, as technology can change human lives. Being the largest online shopping mall in Hong Kong, our HKTVmall is indeed connected and supported by numerous systems, automation and optimization that constitute to an impressive customer journey for online shopping, fulfilment and delivery. Positioning ourselves as a technology enabler, a number of projects are under our pipeline :

1. Design and assemble automated systems for -18°C environment;
2. Other research & development activities such as design, analysis, development of hardware, components sourcing and system integration; and
3. Robotics, mechatronics and automation projects

Job Responsibilities

- Design and assemble automation systems;
- Build advanced automation systems primarily for product assembly and testing;
- Assist in other R&D activities such as design, analysis, development of hardware, components sourcing and system integration etc;
- Provide assistance in Robotics, Mechatronics and Automation projects;
- Identify components suitable for designated project;
- Design and program PLCs, robotic systems, machine vision and other devices; and
- Fine-tune machine parts and components for systems.

Remuneration

With a monthly remuneration starting at HK$18,000

Interested parties please contact Head of Talent Acquisition, Mr. Jimmy Lee at jimmy@hktv.com.hk.

Best regards,
EE General Office