

Company Honeywell Limited
Website <https://www.honeywell.com/us/en>
Position System Engineer, Project Operations

Job Highlights

- Join a Fortune 100 company to develop your career
- 5 days work with double pay, overtime and other allowances
- Good opportunity to learn new technology

Primary Responsibilities

- Assist to lead the testing and commissioning works
- Perform site programming works, identify and remove the general programming defects
- Co-ordinate with team members, labours and subcontractors for the project works
- Assist to coach the team members to carry out the testing and commissioning works
- Co-ordinate with suppliers and sub-contractors to obtain quotations on the project works
- Analyse works problem symptoms and identify root cause(s) to resolve
- Liaise / co-ordinate with customer' site co-ordinators, inspectors and engineers on job related issues and progress
- Prepare project documents, such as, progress report, testing and commissioning reports, to the experienced team members
- Review with the experienced team members / supervisor regularly on jobs progress
- Execute the procedures / guidelines established, to ensure a safety and healthy working environment is provided
- Provide technical support to the installation personnel, commissioning and maintenance staff for carrying out the jobs

Job Requirements

- Good knowledge with handling on Building Control, Extra Low Voltage System or similar in the industry
- Experience in computer systems, such as, Microsoft Office Professional, Software Programming, Computer System Networking, etc
- Good negotiation and co-ordination skills with customers and sub-contractors
- Strong commitment to customer satisfaction
- Good communication - both verbal and written
- Self-motivated and the ability to work independently without supervision
- The ability to work under pressure
- A good team player
- Good safety awareness
- Willing to travel to Macau

Please feel free to email to recruit@Honeywell.com for more details!