

Job Opportunity: Graduate Trainee Program from HGC Global Communications

There is a Graduate Trainee Program offered by HGC Global Communications which is an 18-month fast-track career development plan with high levels of empowerment. It aims to nurture young tech talents by providing opportunities, guidance and mentorship. It is a platform for those who want to pursue a career in Information and Communications Technology (ICT) industry and become ICT leaders in the future. It offers promising career paths and rewarding remuneration to trainees upon completion of the program. The program includes six professional streams listed below.

- Cybersecurity
- Network infrastructure solutions
- System infrastructure solutions
- Product development & innovations
- Software engineering
- Network engineering

You may visit here for more information about the company. Interested parties, please apply with full resume to career@hgc.com.hk.